

Professional Counseling Psychology Masters Program

Department of Psychology

The Professional Counseling Psychology Masters Program at Florida International University is a 60 credit program that leads to an M.S. in Psychology and eligibility to become a Licensed Mental Health Counselor. The program offers students a solid foundation in psychology with unique opportunities for specializing in a range of clinical problems and diverse populations, through faculty guided research and supervised clinical training.

Information Session

Come learn more information about the program. Program format, schedule, cost, application procedures, and admission requirements will be discussed.

Dates: 9/23/16 @ 2pm
10/14/16 @ 2pm
11/18/16 @ 2pm
12/16/16 @ 2pm

Location: FIU MMC Campus
Red Garage, Room 120

RSVP: pcp.fiu.edu/events/

UNIQUE BENEFITS

- Personalized student support and advising
- Hassle-free registration throughout the program
- Accelerated two-year format
- Hybrid Courses

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students are admitted one time per year in the fall semester. For information on admission requirements, visit:

<http://pcp.fiu.edu/admissions/>

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications are due February 15, 2017

Department of Psychology

Modesto A. Maidique Campus • 11200 S.W. 8th St., DM 256 Miami, Florida 33199
t. 305-348-7076 • f. 305-348-3879 • pcp@fiu.edu
<http://casgroup.fiu.edu/counseling>

FIU

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Arts & Sciences