BACHELOR’S in PSYCHOLOGY

INDUSTRIAL-ORGANIZATIONAL TRACK

THE I-O PSYCHOLOGY TRACK

The I-O Psychology Track is designed for students who would like to gain a better understanding of the field of Industrial Organizational Psychology. The required courses exposes students to career possibilities in the field of I-O psychology and provides a basis for further study at the graduate level. Students who complete the I-O track will graduate well prepared to enter the workforce or to pursue an advanced degree.

Required Coursework

5 COURSES (15 CREDITS)

The following four courses are required:

- INP3004: Intro to Industrial Organizational Psychology (3cr)
- INP4203: Personnel Psychology (3cr)
- INP4313: Organizational Psychology (3cr)
- PSY4931: Senior Seminar (I/O topic must be selected) (3cr)

Take one more of the following courses (3cr):

- PSY4302: Psychological Testing
- INP4210: Employee Selection
- SOP4745: Women and Leadership

Note: Speak with your academic advisor for more information on the B.A., I-O Track.